Guess what? We can help with that!

Early Childhood Educator INCENTIVE$ Florida, administered by the Children's Forum, rewards early childhood educators with financial payments based on their level of education and sustained employment. INCENTIVE$ works alongside other quality initiatives to help educate, retain, and provide additional supports for the early childhood workforce. The program also helps foster more stable relationships and positive outcomes for young children in our state's early learning programs.

INCENTIVE$ is currently available for early childhood educators in select, participating counties. Learn more and apply at incentives-fl.com.

Benefits:

- Provides education-based financial payments to early educators and family child care providers
- Average annual incentive payment of $2,472 (FY 2021-22)
- Raises morale with increased recognition and job satisfaction

Outcomes:

- Addresses staff wages without affecting the center or program's budget
- Supports formal education, professional growth, and career development
- Promotes upskilling to retain the early childhood workforce in Florida
